THOUGHT OF THE WEEK – A faith still searching

Faith is neither a purely intellectual nor a purely emotional attitude. It has an intellectual side, professing what we judge to be true; and in part it is a matter of responding to feelings; but these are a gift of the Spirit which moves us to give ourselves over to One greater than ourselves. If we hand ourselves over to this sense of God and let go of the illusion of being only for ourselves, it can bring us inner, spiritual growth.

Faith is a special form of knowing, as when we know a friend. It touches an awareness deep within us, an awareness of God's presence guiding and helping us. It is the experience described about Abraham, Jesus and other great figures in the Bible. Faith is an on-going process, growing as we grow, changing as we change, maturing and we mature. Our childhood faith cannot sustain us in adulthood, though it can develop into one that stays with us through life.

The Winter Night Shelter will run again this year; it will run for 12 weeks, from January till the end of March. Please start thinking about how you can help. There are a number of roles to be filled: to set up the Shelter; to meet and greet the guests; to prepare and cook the evening meal; to stay overnight to ensure the guests are safe; to tidy up and serve breakfast and to launder the sheets and pillows in preparation for the following week. Volunteer Training will be held later in the autumn, towards November time. Anyone can volunteer, faith or no faith so please have a think about helping out.

WESTMINSTER DIOCESAN PILGRIMAGE TO WALSINGHAM, Saturday 21st September

As we prepare for the rededication of England to Our Lady as her dowry (March 2020), we have the chance to go on pilgrimage with Cardinal Vincent and other Catholics from across the diocese this September. After lunch we walk the Holy Mile and conclude with Benediction at the old Priory shrine. To provisionally book a place on the coach, phone St Augustine's, Hoddesdon (01992-440986) with your details; to firmly book your place on the coach, please then send a cheque for £25 payable to 'St Augustine's Catholic Church' - or deliver cash by hand - to The Presbytery, Esdaile Lane, Hoddesdon, Herts, EN11 8DS
